How to Confidently Communicate in Your Relationships and Still Love 'Em!

Your Seminar Leaders

Monica Wofford is the world's first "non-motivational" speaker who provides results instead of rah-rah. Her methods are interactive, entertaining and individual participant need focused. She brings 18 years of real world leadership experience to your life changing session and will guarantee an entertaining, yet immediately applicable experience. Monica is President of the training firm Monica Wofford International. She is a certified CORE coach, board President of Freedom Ride, an international speaker, an amateur polo player and a big fan of the "voices in our heads," the key to Contagious Confidence. You DO talk to yourself about your relationships, don't you?

Eric Shulman, President of Sandler Training in Maitland, FL, brings over 40 years of professional sales and relationship building experience to the table. The combination of his front-line selling experience together with his exceptional communication skills enables him to provide a "hands on," real world, psychologically-based approach to building and developing stronger interpersonal relationships and dealing with the problems and challenges that occur whenever human beings interact. In short, proven techniques that really work to avoid conflict and build trust within your circle of influence.
